TASTING NOTES:

NOSE: Sweet, soft & slightly spicy. A mixture of vanilla and rum and raisin ice cream, fresh and citrusy with a hint of tropical fruits. Not too much peat on the nose PALATE: Very soft again with citrus notes. Slight peppery spice with a hint of raisins. Malty with a hint of fresh wood. Salty and dry on the finish.

FINISH: Slightly nutty with a delayed heavy hit of bonfire smoke.

The English Whisky Co. was founded in 2005 by James Nelstrop to fulfil a lifelong quest to build a whisky distillery. The new distillery was to be named St George's Distillery. The distillery was built on farmland owned by the family and this was the latest venture for the Nelstrop family who have been farming and milling in England for over 600 years. James had never understood why there were no whisky distilleries in England – Scotland and Ireland having cornered the market in the UK. The English Whisky Co. at St Georges is the first registered whisky distillery in England for over a century and leads the resurgence of an English whisky.

All the casks used for the production of Original & Smokey are sourced from Jim Beam's Clermont distillery.
